

Albert Lin

Partner and Chief Investment
Officer at Northview Law

Speaker Highlight

Albert Lin is a corporate lawyer, investor, and entrepreneur whose career spans institutional investing, venture capital, and business law. He is Partner and Chief Investment Officer at Northview Law and Founder and Lead Investor of dCarbonVC, a family office and venture investment platform.

Previously, Albert served as Senior Vice President at Brookfield Asset Management, where he led major investment initiatives and played a leadership role in Brookfield's landmark takeover bid for Inter Pipeline Ltd.

Albert has participated in early investments in transformative companies including SpaceX and Canadian fintech leader ZayZoon. He advises founders, business owners, and investors on capital raising, M&A, governance, and long-term value creation.